

Christmas In July

Afternoon Tea

‘Twas the night before Christmas,
And all through the hall,
The elves were busy working,
To bring cheer before fall!

Let’s skip all the snow,
The ice and the slush,
We want a warm Christmas
Without all that mush!

This year we’ll have Christmas
In purples and reds,
Women in dresses,
With hats on their heads!

There shall be lovely ladies
Blinged up to the nines.
Sipping tea, eating scones,
And having a good time.

We want presents for all,
And a decadent dessert!
After all, it’s the holidays
A few more calories won’t hurt.
